Freedom of Speech Policy Statement

Introduction

1. Freedom of speech and expression are central tenets of learning and an important part of College and University life.

2. Worcester College seeks to protect robustly civic and academic freedoms and to foster an academic culture of openness and inclusivity, in which members of our community engage in debate critically but courteously, and remain open to both intellectual challenge and change.

3. The legal duty of UK universities to protect free speech is enshrined in legislation, with specific requirements of the Higher Education (Freedom of Speech) Act 2023 placing duties on the governing body of a higher education provider (and constituent institutions and students’ unions) to i) secure freedom of speech; ii) maintain a code of practice; and iii) promote the importance of freedom of speech and academic freedom.¹

4. The right to freedom of expression is also subject to important limitations, for example to prevent unlawful discrimination, harassment or incitement to violence or hatred against other individuals or groups. It is against the law to discriminate against someone because of a protected characteristic². There are other laws such as privacy, libel and defamation which may restrict freedom of speech in certain circumstances.

5. In protecting the right to freedom of expression, the College recognises that its members may at times be confronted with views that some find unsettling, extreme or offensive. The College shall always aim, therefore, to foster freedom of expression within a framework of robust civility, which welcomes evidence and challenge in an environment of respectful debate and peaceful exchange. The College will not allow this right to be abused for the purpose of hatred or bigotry.

² The Equality Act 2010 prohibits discrimination on the basis of nine protected characteristics – age, gender reassignment, being pregnant or on maternity leave, disability, race including colour, nationality, national or ethnic origin, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.
6. This Freedom of Speech Policy and Code of Practice is part of a framework of principles and operational procedures for the management of issues relating to the exercise of the right to freedom of speech. It shall be brought to the attention of students and staff in inductions and trainings, and through annual reference in Student, Staff and Academic Handbooks.

7. Worcester College is under no legal obligation to allow meetings to be held on College premises which are open to members of the public or made purely on a commercial basis, and therefore reserves the right to decline to accept a booking by a third party, or to cancel such a booking, particularly (but not exclusively) with reference to any major risks or issues related to such activity both on the grounds of health and safety and in the context of this Code.

Key principles

8. Worcester College believes that a culture of free, open and robust discussion can be achieved only if all concerned engage critically but courteously with each other. The College is committed to fostering an inclusive culture which promotes equality, values diversity and maintains a working, learning and social environment in which the rights and dignity of all members of the College community are respected.

9. The College believes that everyone has the right, within the bounds set by law, to express, receive, test and question views or opinions without fear of intimidation, discrimination or censorship.

10. Worcester College:
    a. is fully committed to the right of freedom of speech as a fundamental aspect of University life;
    b. takes account of the statutory frameworks within which freedom of speech must or may be circumscribed, but will not obstruct speech that is lawful;
    c. will not tolerate any form of harassment or victimisation and expects all members of the College, its visitors and contractors to treat each other with respect, courtesy and consideration;
    d. encourages respectful debate, including debate of difficult and controversial issues, but will not allow freedom of expression to be abused for the purpose of hatred or bigotry; and
    e. recognises that protest is also a valid part of freedom of expression, but it must be peaceful and not be allowed to shut down lawful debate or infringe the rights of others.

11. The College will take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for its members, students and employees, and for visiting speakers. The College’s Code of Practice for Meetings and Events is underpinned by the principles of free speech, and sets out the procedures and conduct required of those organising or attending meetings or other activities.

12. The Worcester College Freedom of Speech Policy and Code of Practice applies to all Worcester College members and its students’ unions and societies. A breach of this Policy may be considered a disciplinary matter under the relevant staff or student disciplinary procedures; in the most serious cases, such a breach could lead to dismissal or expulsion from College.

Code of Practice for College Meetings and Events

1. It is not anticipated that events which form part of the College’s academic functions of teaching, study or research will need to be formally referred under this Policy. However, this Code of Practice must be followed by all members, students and employees of Worcester College and visiting speakers in respect of:
   a. all meetings and other events, to be held outdoors or indoors, on Worcester College premises, including those organised by third parties; and
   b. all meetings and other events, which are funded by, affiliated with or bear the name of Worcester College, Oxford, regardless of location; and whether or not they are organised as part of the College’s academic functions of teaching, study or research.

2. Nothing in this Code of Practice shall be taken to prohibit the legitimate exercise of the right to protest by peaceful means; provided always that nothing is done which contravenes this Code, or the statutes, bylaws or regulations of the College.

Responsibilities of event organisers

3. Subject to paragraph 1, all members, students and employees of the College who are organising meetings or events, or are responsible for administering external bookings of College premises, are responsible for assessing whether there are any major risks or issues related to such activity both on the grounds of health and safety and in the context of this Code.

4. Any College member (including student members) or employee involved in arranging events with internal or external speakers, including meetings, exhibitions or other assemblies, (“relevant activity”) on College premises must notify the Senior Tutor (in the case of student-led or academic-related events) or the Finance & Estates Bursar (in the case of all other events) immediately in writing and with details if they become aware of any reason that suggests the relevant activity:
   a. risks being the subject of protest;
   b. risks breaching this Policy;
   c. may give rise to an environment in which people will experience, or could reasonably fear, discrimination, harassment, intimidation, verbal abuse or violence;
   d. poses a risk to the safety of those lawfully on College premises, or to public safety; and/or
   e. contravenes section 12 of the Terrorism Act 2000, in that: (i) the proposed speaker belongs to, or professes to belong to, a proscribed organisation; or (ii) the proposed speaker will use the event to support, or to further the activities of, a proscribed organisation.

5. Information is required at least seven working days in advance (although the Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar may, at her/his discretion, agree to receive information closer to the time of the meeting than this). The meeting or event may be cancelled where the required information has not been provided seven working days in advance.

6. A frivolous, vexatious and/or malicious referral may lead to disciplinary action being taken under the relevant College procedure.

7. Upon referral to the Senior Tutor or Finance & Estates Bursar, the procedures set out below will be implemented.

The Internal Events Booking Form includes an entry to address this assessment requirement.
Referral procedures

8. The Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar shall act in a proportionate manner and with the desire, wherever possible, to enable events or meetings to proceed.

9. The Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar will, upon notification of a referral based on the assessment as noted above, or on receipt of similar information from any other source regarding a relevant activity on College premises, consider the details and context within the relevant legal framework. Such consideration may include, amongst other matters:
   a. Principles of institutional autonomy and academic freedom under, for example, the Higher Education and Research Act 2017;
   b. Freedom of speech and freedom of expression under the common law and the Human Rights Act 1998, along with any other relevant rights such as those relating to freedom of religion and belief and freedom of assembly;
   c. Provisions prohibiting discrimination and harassment and promoting equality under the Equality Act 2010 and, where relevant, the Public Sector Equality Duty;
   d. The “prevent duty” under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015;
   e. The College’s obligations for the health and safety of students, staff and visitors under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and at common law;
   f. The College’s obligations under charity law;
   g. Other potential obligations under criminal or civil law; and
   h. What reasonably practicable steps can be taken to mitigate any risks identified.

10. In considering the above matter, the Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar may consult other College Members or employees (other than any individual who may be asked to review the decision under the terms of this Policy), may seek further information from relevant parties, and/or may obtain independent legal advice if considered appropriate.

11. The lawful expression of controversial, unpopular or critical views by an invited speaker do not in themselves constitute grounds for withholding permission for a meeting or event. However, an assessment may conclude that measures should be in place to ensure such views are subject to robust debate, critique and challenge.

12. Based on the above analysis and an assessment of any risks, the Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar will decide whether the relevant activity should be subject to any reasonably practicable conditions to mitigate any risks identified, including whether the risks are to individual health and safety, to freedom of speech, or to academic freedom. Examples of such conditions might include:
   a. Putting in place appropriate stewarding, security and/or arrangements for access to the activity;
   b. Ensuring there is an opportunity for different viewpoints to be appropriately represented or challenged;
   c. Appointment of a meeting chair;
   d. Designation of organisers;
   e. Agreeing arrangements with the University Proctors and/or the police;
f. Ensuring that promotional material for an event or a precis of a speech is submitted in advance; and

g. Taking any other reasonable steps to allow the event to proceed.

13. If the Senior Tutor/Finance & Estates Bursar is not satisfied that the risks identified can be mitigated sufficiently, they will decide either that the relevant activity will be postponed until appropriately satisfactory arrangements can be made, or, as a last resort, that it will be cancelled.

14. Organisers of meetings and events must cooperate and comply with any conditions imposed concerning the arrangements for the conduct of the meeting.

15. In line with College duties under the Higher Education (Freedom of Speech) Act 2023, where mitigation measures include the costs of security for the use of College premises as part of the College’s academic functions of teaching, study or research, apart from in exceptional circumstances, such use of College premises by any individual or body may not be on terms that require that individual or body to bear some or all of the costs of security relating to their use of the premises.

16. College members (including student members) and employees responsible for delivering or organising the relevant activity will cooperate in implementing any such conditions.

Disputes and appeals

17. In the event that any College member (including student members), invited speaker or organiser of a relevant College event is dissatisfied with any decisions taken under this Policy, they may within 7 days of the decision ask the Provost to review that decision, setting out clear reasons for their unhappiness or dissatisfaction.

18. The Provost or Provost’s delegate (as appropriate) will communicate their decision on the appeal promptly and will set out the reasons for the decision.

19. If, under Section A7 of the Higher Education (Freedom of Speech) Act 2023, a person wishes to make a civil claim for breach of duty in relation to this Policy, the procedures set out in the relevant College Complaints Policy shall apply. (These policies are referenced in Handbooks for Students, Staff and Fellows & Lecturers.)

Responsibilities and delegation

20. The Governing Body of the College has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this Policy and for ensuring compliance with relevant legislation. Regular review of this policy is delegated to the People and Culture Committee with guidance from the Governance and Compliance Committee if legislation or compliance obligations change.

21. Where any relevant individual specified in this Policy is unavailable for any reason, their function under this Policy may be delegated as specified below:
